Session and Paper presentations

A1 & E1 From Decolonizing Methodology to Knowledge Cultures

Session Organizers: Gulnara Mendikulova and Angelika Poferl

Paper's Title	Authors
Decolonizing Methodology of Social Science: From Post-Colonial Theory to Decolonial Knowledge & Knowledge Cultures and Qualitative Methods	Angelika Poferl and Gulnara Mendikulova
Lifeworld 'Campus' in between Knowledge Cultures. A German-Pakistani Teaching Research Project	Pao Nowodworski and Syeda Aisha Furrukh
Knowledge About 'the Past': Processes of Legitimation in the Production of and Access to the Past Among African Descendants in Brazilian "Quilombos"	Lucas Cé Sangalli
Indigenous Methods and Multiplicity of Truths	Tania Sen
A Critical and Historical Exploration of Sites of Memory of Blantyre City in Malawi	Mwayi Lusaka

A3 & E2 Decolonizing Social Science Methodology and the Global South – Methods from, by and/or for the Global South & How International is Interpretive Social Research?

Session Organizers: Idongesit Eshiet

Paper's Title	Authors
Reimagining the decolonial knowledge in the ethnographic context	Amiya Kumar Das
Conceptualizing and Measuring Tribalism in Black Africa: An Example of Contextualizing Applied Social Psychology Research	NJENGOUE NGAMALEU HENRI RODRIGUE
Decolonization of Methodologies for Security Research in Africa through Indigenous Knowledge Systems in three Selected Regions in Nigeria	Ferdinand O. Ottoh
The Antidote to Methodological Nationalism: Democratic Principles and Economic Prosperity	Keshav Soni and Sivasankar V.

B1 Key Ethical Principles in Protecting Research Subjects: Accommodating Research Ethics from Global South

Session Organizers: Ndwana Keaobaka Tsimanyane and Lynne CK Mosomane

Paper's Title	Authors
Key Ethical Principles in Protecting Research Subjects: Accommodating Research Ethics from Global South. An Introduction to the Session	Lynne C.K. Mosomane, Ndwana K. Tsimanyane and Mrunali Harshadrai Damania

METHODOLOGICAL CHALLENGES IN SUBSTANCE USE DISORDERS (SUD) STUDIES	Ndwana K. Tsimanyane and Lynne C.K. Mosomane
Social Science Research and Open-ended artificial software: Uncertain Ethics and Ambivalence using ChatGPT in Academia	Suraj Kumar Tanty and Tanya Goyal

B2 In the Field – Experiences in Conducting Research in the Global South

Session Organizers: Wolfgang Aschauer and Thomas Herdin

Paper's Title	Authors
Unveiling Educational Disparities: Navigating Challenges in Conducting Fieldwork in Rural India	Utkarsh Kamal
Microfinance and Poverty Alleviation: The Contribution of SILC, a Savings-led Microfinance Programme in Semonkong Maseru, Lesotho	Mamotsiba Makara, Gabriel Faimau and France Maphosa
Translation, Misrepresentation and Power Play	Nonofo Mokwakwa and Gabriel Faimau
Experiencing the Field: Slum as Physical Space Shaping and Producing Conflict in Mental Space	Shadab Anis
Immersion in a bureaucratic field: Critical Reflections on Fieldwork Practices.	Mridusmita Dutta
Applying an "Indigenous Culture-Based Approach" to Explore Vietnamese Participants' Lives: Challenges, Methods, and Insights	Nguyễn Hồng Ngọc

B3 Social Inequality in Field Work – Handling Reseachers' Positionality in Research

Session Organizers: Nina Baur, Gabriel Faimau, Daddy Dibinga Kalamba and Lucas Cé Sangalli

Paper's Title	Authors
Autoethnographic Positioning Analysis as a Strategy for Studying Social In/equalities in Field and Fieldwork	Tobias Boll
Gender and Appearance Matters: Researcher-Respondent Interactions in Psychological Research	Tanya Goyal and Suraj Kumar Tanty
Navigating through the Field: Experiences as a Female Researcher	Raveena Esther Ravichandran
Being a Women Researcher with European Passport in the Global South	Hannah Katalin Grimmer and Joanna Katharina Kiefer
Crises in Fieldwork: Inequality, Identity and Islam in South India	Saidalavi P.C.

B4 Who and How Should we Include in Methodological Tools? Towards the Integration of Stakeholders and Different Approaches for Spatial Knowledge Construction

Session Organizers: Sirima Thongsawang

Paper's Title	Authors
Who and How Should we Include in Methodological Tools? Towards the Integration of Stakeholders and Different Approaches for Spatial Knowledge Construction	Sirima Thongsawang
Investigating Space while Sensing Space as "Research Tourist": Multimodal Autoethnographic Mappings as Complementary Resource to Explore Non-Human Actors and Stakeholders within Constructions of Space	Jae-Young E. Lee
Decolonization and the Quest for Epistemology of the South: Reflections on Methodological and Theoretical Constraints.	Edlyne Anugwom
Unveiling Participation: Investigating Stakeholder Representation in Participatory Design for Public Spaces.	Atheeva Reji Kumar and Lakshmi Srinivasan
Mapping in/formality and in/visibility in Lagos, Nigeria	Francesca Ceola and Qosay Amer

C1 Methodologies for the Investigation of Spatial Transformation Processes

Session Organizers: Gabriela Christmann

Paper's Title	Authors
Social Sustainability in Urban Neighbourhoods. Investigating Spatial Transformation Processes in Berlin-Moabit and Hamburg-Wilhelmsburg in by an Ethnographic Discourse Analysis	Gabriela Christmann
A methodological approach to understand the socio spatial transformation of urban commons in Bengaluru	Rachna Mehra
This is not quite what we imagined, or was it?" – Spatial transformation in the inner city of Lisbon	Madalena Corte-Real
Spatial processes in Singapore's neighbourhoods	Kong Chong HO
understanding socio-spatial transformation of contested public spaces	Maryam Saedi
Characterising the lives and living experiences of welfare recipients and their households – The case of the public assistance grant of Trinidad and Tobago	Hafeeza Hosein Shah and Godfrey St Bernard

C3 Cities and Communities: Unpacking the Contested Urban in South Asia

Session Organizers: Anshu Saluja and Sunit Arora

Paper's Title	Authors
Cities and Communities: Unpacking the Contested Urban in South Asia. An Introduction	Anshu Saluja and Sunit Arora
Exploring human perception of nonhuman elements in the port city of Chittagong, Bangladesh	Muhammad Ala Uddin
Land Imaginaries of Eri Poramboke lands: Evolution, Trajectories and Contestations in North Chennai	Sowmya K
Working Backwards: Mixed-Methods Approaches and the Challenge of a Fragmentary Migration Archive	Radheshyam Thiyagarajan and Nazia Akhtar
Urban Centres as Foci of multiple Authority: Reconstruction of Political Dynamics in Panjab between 700 CE and 1400 CE	Ashish Rawat
Community based urban residential self-segregation: case study of a middle-class Delhi suburb	Priyasha Kaul

C4 & I2 (1) Mapping the Socio-Spatial Transformation of Public Space & Urban Assemblage: Interrogating Transdisciplinary Methodological Approaches to Researching the City Environments

Session Organizers: Shamin Golrokh, Maryam Saedi, Anthony Mavuto Gunde and Victor Chikaipa

Paper's Title	Authors
Mapping the Socio-Spatial Transformation of Public Space (& Urban Assemblage: Interrogating Transdisciplinary Methodological Approaches to Researching the City Environments)	Shamin Golrokh, Maryam Saedi, Anthony Mavuto Gunde, and Victor Chikaipa
Mapping the Socio-Spatial Transformation of Public Space (& Urban Assemblage: Interrogating Transdisciplinary Methodological Approaches to Researching the City Environments)	Anthony Mavuto Gunde, Victor Chikaipa, Shamin Golrokh, and Maryam Saedi
Mapping the Socio-Spatial Transformation of Public Space	Shamin Golrokh and Maryam Saedi
Urban Assemblage: Interrogating Transdisciplinary Methodological Approaches to Researching the City Environments	Anthony Mavuto Gunde and Victor Chikaipa
City as Canvas: How Creative Public Arts Transform Forgotten Urban Spaces in Hanoi, Vietnam	Nguyen The Son and Tran Hoai

C4 & I2 (2) Mapping the Socio-Spatial Transformation of Public Space & Urban Assemblage: Interrogating Transdisciplinary Methodological Approaches to Researching the City Environments

Session Organizers: Shamin Golrokh, Maryam Saedi, Anthony Mavuto Gunde and Victor Chikaipa

Paper's Title	Authors
Storytelling and narratives of city-making and the politics of inclusivity: Rethinking and repositioning the complexities of urban lives in Windhoek, Namibia	Nelson Mlambo
Exclusionary public spaces: a case of public art in Delhi	Nian Paul
Cultural memories and the imaginations of Bulawayo city in post-colonial Zimbabwe	Mphathisi Ndlovu

D3 Language and Social Research

Session Organizers: Gabriel Faimau, Nina Baur, Silke Steets and Daddy Dibinga Kalamba

Paper's Title	Authors
Language and Social Research. An Introduction	Nina Baur, Hubert Knoblauch, Gabriel Faimau and Silke Steets
(Im)possibilities of Translation and Mediation of Temporal Concepts. Future Time in German and Mandarin	Sercan Sever
"Whose Research"? Promoting Linguistic Inclusion and Fostering Communication in Urban Research Studies	Victor Chikaipa
Interlinguistic Sensitivity in Qualitative Research: Attentiveness to (Foreign)Language Encounters as a Contribution to Epistemic Quality and Justice in Academic Knowledge Production	Cornelia Bading, Kerstin Kazzazi and Jeannine Wintzer

D4 Comparative Urbanism and Qualitative Social Research

Session Organizers: Agatha Nthenge

Paper's Title	Authors
Intra-urban comparison as tactic for researching place-specific waterscape changes in Kibera and Eastleigh, Nairobi (Kenya)	Moritz Kasper, Elizabeth Wamuchiru and Sophie Schramm
Core-periphery Urban Relations: A Compatitive Study of the cities in North Kerala	Roshna.P.P

D5 Diverse Geographies, (Dis)similar Empirics: Exploring Climate Risks and Resilience in Urban Deltas Using 'Comparative Urbanism' Approach

Session Organizers: Jenia Mukherjee and Wiwandari Handayan

Paper's Title	Authors
Strategies to mitigate social vulnerability of coastal communities to sea level rise – A case of Kochi city region	Meril Maria Mathewand and Jain K George
Flood planning practices in the Semarang City: A preliminary institutional analysis	Intan Hapsari Surya Putri and Imam Buchori
Urbanization and Suburbanization of a Coastal City: A Case Study of the City of Pattaya	Sutee Anantsuksomsri, Suwadee T. Hansasooksin and Nij Tontisirin

E4 & A5 Urban Ethnography – Practical Experiences, Lessons and Challenges of the Research Method & The Decolonization of Spatial Ethnography: Perspectives and Limits

Session Organizers: Steve Tonah & Elettra Griesi

Paper's Title	Authors
Urban Ethnography – Practical Experiences, Lessons and Challenges of the Research Method & The Decolonization of Spatial Ethnography: Perspectives and Limits	Steve Tonah and Elettra Griesi
The Production of Urban Border Spaces	Annett Bochmann
Mobile Autoethnography for Understanding Urban Mobile Lived Experience: Opportunities and Challenges	Mohammad Nazarpoor

E5 Ethnography as Spatial-Temporal Method for Research on Urban Public Space

Session Organizers: Fraya Frehse and Mariano Perelman

Paper's Title	Authors
Ethnography as Spatial-Temporal Method for Research on Urban Public Space. An Introduction	Fraya Frehse and Mariano Perelman
Keja_Homes: Socio-spatial transformation beyond modernization in Kenya	Jochen Kibel and Makau Kitata

F3 & G6 Mapping, Social Mapping, Participatory Methods, Spatial Research, Planning & Data-Driven Smart Community Design

Session Organizers: Mitchell de Sousa

Paper's Title	Authors
Inclusive Development of fringe areas in Tier II Metro city: A step towards Inclusive Region.	Poorva and Subhrajit Banerjee

Examining the Experiences of Environment Planners (EnPs) in the Preparation and Development of Comprehensive Land Use Plans Through Phenomenological Research	Marjorie Cartojano and Rey Cartojano
Navigating a Contested Urban: Space, Place and Everyday Insecurity	Anshu Saluja
Algorithmic Urban Planning in Asian Smart Cities: Navigating Social Fabric and Democratic Values	Keshav Soni and Sivasankar V
Operating typologies of community generated ephemeral built interventions and their contribution in ensuring visual appropriateness of market streets in Colombo	Janaka Wijesundara and Narmada Jayasinghe
Incorporation of qualitative data on social acceleration into a data-driven design	Mihye Cho
Counter-Public Problematization of Police Necropolitics	Mina Godarzani-Bakhtiari

G1 Methodological Challenges in Spatial Method: A Quantitative Approach

Session Organizers: Pratik Kumar Singh

Paper's Title	Authors
Methodological Challenges in Spatial Method. A Quantitative Approach. An Introduction	Pratik Kumar Singh
The Impact of population dynamics on territorial governance in China.	Pierre F. Landry, Xiaoyu ZHANG and Austin J. Bliss
Housing Land Suitability Analysis of Malappuram District, Kerala	Dimple Maria, Anisha Lalu, Meril Maria Mathew, Aquiline Moses, Karthik S Kumar, Bismina Akbar, Akshaya P, Priyanjali Prabhakaran and Lakshmi S R
Rethinking of Multidimensional Poverty Measurement: A Field Based Empirical Study in East India using Mixed Method	Bapan Biswas

G2 Strategies of Data Collection, Storage and Access in Psychology and Related Discipline

Session Organizers: Manish Kumar Asthana

Paper's Title	Authors
Strategies of Data Collection, Storage and Access in Psychology and Related Discipline	Manish Kumar Asthana
Modern Issues in Data Collection and its Accessibility in Psychology and Allied Sciences	Adarsh K. Verma, Aysha Thasleema, and Usha Chivukula
Viet Nam past ideology processes and present chaos society – meeting the challenges of process methodology using brain science and evolution theories	Nguyễn Thị Bích Ngọc, Nguyễn Thị Nhung and Ingmar Ehler

G4 & G5 Digital Transformations and Datafication in the Cities: challenges for data collection, data analysis, and data governance

Session Organizers: Gabriel Faimau, Langtone Maunganidze, and Dennis Zuev

Paper's Title	Authors
Methodological Challenges in Studying Data Governance: the case of Digital Silk Road	Dennis Zuev
Digital Transformation and Information Technology in India: An Emergence	Ishani Vajpai and Jayashri Vajpai
Broken hearts, bothered relationships and seeking suggestions: A qualitative analysis of women confessions on the Facebook page in India	Suresh Jungari
Longue Durée – Digitalized: Reflections on Data Shocks, the Fiction of Newness and Biases of Contemporary Digital Research	Jasmin Siri

G7 Understanding Influencers of Fast Urbanization using Non-survey Data

Session Organizers: Elias Peter Mwakilama

Paper's Title	Authors
Understanding Influencers of Fast Urbanization using Non-survey Data	Elias Peter Mwakilama
The Local Party-State in Action: How Administrative Reclassification and Party Recruitment Condition the Governance of Land in China.	Zheng Zhang, Pierre F. Landry and Austin Bliss
Evaluation of Spatial Configuration of Built Environment to Achieve Thermal Comfort A Digitization and Transactive Spatial Planning Approach	Sudharsanamurthy P.
Using non-survey spatial data for ex-post evaluations: A systematic review of designs and methods	Elias Peter Mwakilama
Understanding Lilongwe's urbanisation using remote sensing and the SLEUTH urban growth model.	Zola Manyungwa

H1 (Re-)Thinking Methods for Migration Research

Session Organizers: Esteban Perez Gnavi

Paper's Title	Authors
Interpreting Migration, Rethinking Methods: Lessons from a Caribbean Archival Ethnography	Fabio Santos
The Vietnamese diaspora in Thailand: From Historical and Multi-sited Approaches	Trần Văn Quyến and Trần Hoài

Social Mobility in the Context of Digital Economy Development: A Case Study of Migrant Workers in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam	Mai Lê, Khương Phan and Trang Nguyễn

H2 Urban Mobility Studies: Methodological Enquiry from Social Science and Human-Centric Approaches

Session Organizers: Gaurav Raheja

Paper's Title	Authors
Study on the environmental impact of city bypass road development: A case example from Kerala.	Karthik S Kumar and Nidhish PJ
Developing Accessible Urban Mobility: Innovating a Framework for Evaluating Environmental Accessibility in Multimodal Transportation Hubs	Kiran Kumar Sreedharan, Anjali G R, Veena R S, Dimple Maria, Ardra S Babu, Vincy Vijayan, Priyanjali Prabhakaran and Shailaja Nair
Fusing Design and Research Methods to enquire Inclusivity in a Suburban Mobility System: A Case of Mumbai	Gaurav Raheja, Anita Sarmah, Divyang Purkayastha and Suyash Rahariya
Covid-19 and Cities: Does connectivity exacerbate pandemic?	Pratik Kumar Singh and Alok Kumar Mishra
How do we research bicycling? Mixed-methods for bicycling research in LMIC cities	Smruthi Bala Kannan, Rahul Goel, Jonathan Shapiro Anjaria, Srishti Agrawal, Anisur Rahman Bayazid, Shivani, Joel Shelton Terrance, Mehul Gupta, Rohit M, Ankush Pal, Ernest Agyemang, Zahidul Quayyum, and Kavi Bhalla

H3 (1) Comparative Study about 'Leaving' and 'Living': Housing and Young People in Asia

Session Organizers: Mihye Cho

Paper's Title	Authors
Negotiating Urban Place-making: Exploring the role of Neighborhoods and Gatekeepers for Northeast and Muslim Women Migrants in Delhi	Swapnil Pareek
Portraying the process of studentification in a typical Indian City: Case of Dehradun	Diksha Tiwari and Uttam Kumar Roy

H3 (2) Comparative Study about 'Leaving' and 'Living': Housing and Young People in Asia

Session Organizers: Mihye Cho

Paper's Title	Authors
Youth and Housing in Jakarta, Indonesia	Stefani Nugroho
Conflict or Negotiation of Traveling and Dwelling	Kim Ji Youn
"What's next?" temporary life-cycle trajectories of Korean college students' living experience in dormitory	Hyeonjeong Yoo and Mihye Cho

I1 & I2 Decoding the City: Entanglements of the Material and Affective & Urban Assemblage: Interrogating Transdisciplinary Methodological Approaches to Researching the City Environments

Session Organizers: Aditya Mohanty, Wolfgang Aschauer,Anthony Mavuto Gunde and Victor Chikaipa

Paper's Title	Authors
'Lock the Gates': How Risk as Affective Determines Urban Dwelling	Soumili Kundu
Affective care beyond the humans: Rethinking the city space	Shubhangi Srivastava
Materialities, affects, and politics of religion in the Polish city: Gdańsk aspiring for pluralism	Anna M. Maćkowiak
Interrogating Splintering Urbanism in the Postcolonial Smart City of Patna	Shubham Shekhar and Aditya Mohanty
Expanded Corporeality: Reflections on the transgression of the lived body through sensual reciprocity	Frederike Brandt

I3 Experimenting with Methods for Entangled Areas and Critical Zones

Session Organizers: Jakkrit Sangkhamanee and Casper Bruun Jensen

Paper's Title	Authors
Co-respond and Circulate: Translocal Methods	Indrawan Prabaharyaka and Muhammad Insan Kamil
Entangled while Recognizing Tsunamis: Indonesian Tsunami Warning Center as an Area	Irina Rafliana
Multispecies Entanglements on an Urban Campus	Fadjar Ibnu Thufail
Ethnographic DIY as a method to learn to be affected	Atsuro Morita
Reimagining Southeast Asia through the urban	Kristian Karlo Saguin

J1 & J5 Design Methods for Accessibility and Social Inclusion & Well-Being in Socio-Spatial Contexts – Participatory Research Methods and Tools

Session Organizers: Angela Million, Marta Brkovic Dodig and Gaurav Raheja

Paper's Title	Authors
Serious Games as Method for Investigating the Well-Being of Children and Teens	Angela Million and Katrin Schamun
Methodological Insights into Exploring Mother-Child's Spatial Usage in Urban Public Spaces	Aishwarya Isha and Gaurav Raheja
Methods and tools for studying inclusion in Indian streets	Jinoj Mathidharan and Gaurav Raheja
Intersections of Urban Design and Sense of Security in the Hill City of Shimla	Amisha Thakur

The Eye, The Notebook and The Senses: Examining the ethnographer's toolkit in 'disability' research	Mahashewta Bhattacharya and Bijendra Singh

J2 & J3 & J4 Spatial Methods in Healthcare Research & Dialogues between Health, Urbanity, and the Environment: Applying Mixed Methods Approach and Findings

Session Organizers: Cornelia Thierbach and Faith Ndungi

Paper's Title	Authors
A Mixed Method Approach to The Prevention of Lifestyle Diseases in The Work Environment	Faith Ndungi, Leilanie Fletcher, Sarah Matenge, Caroline Imani, Victoria Mbigidde, Jasmine Mushi and Musa Nada
The States Hands in Our Underpants- Gynecology as Gatekeeper to Reproductive Rights	Salma Mekkes
Counting Death and Disease: Ethnomethodology of Data Generation in a Hospital Setting of Delhi, India	Bijendra Singh
Health Risk Behavior Research among Indian Adolescents: Challenges and Future Directions	Aysha Thasleema, Adarsh K Verma, and, Usha Chivukula
Mapping spatial maternal health care provision in a city of inequalities – The case of Windhoek	Sarah Mlambo
Global South paradigms and the decolonial logics of health equity in a post-apartheid city: Towards a spatial maternal healthcare communication approach in the city of Windhoek, Namibia	Nelson Mlambo and Sarah Mlambo

K1 Engendering Urban Governance and Planning in the Global South: Methodological Issues and Challenges

Session Organizers: Varsha Prasad and Binitha V Thamp

Paper's Title	Authors
Unravelling Gender and Class Dynamics: Socio-Spatial Mapping near Delhi University North Campus	Swapnil Pareek
(Un)Homely Spaces: Understanding the Role of Women in Structuring Refugee Colonies in Post-Partition Calcutta	Sumallya Mukhopadhyay
Moral Geographies and Spatial Governance: A Study of Sex Work in Silchar, India	Tridib Mukherjee
Assessment of planning strategies to assemble land towards affordable housing in Bangladesh	Kasphia Nahrin

K2 Feminist Participatory Methods for Gender-Inclusive Urban Planning and Design

Session Organizers: Megha Tyagi and Inês Martina Lersch

Paper's Title	Authors
Water & Gender Insecurity In India: A case of Tier II state capital city of Lucknow-Feminist Participatory Approach To Rurban Sustainability	Ananya Tripathi and Subhrajit Banerjee
Water Insecurity and Climate Change, and their Impact on Women: A Case Study of Delhi, India	Arti Devi
Applicability of Feminist Participatory Strategies for Gender Inclusion in Smart Cities Mission of India	Tarun Kumar Mondal

K3 Between Precarity and Formality: Interrogating the Gendered Spaces of Informality in the Global South

Session Organizers: Edlyne Anugwom and Wiwandari Handayani

Paper's Title	Authors
Life histories of informality in a Kenyan 'slum': A study of 50 years of gendered experiences	Stephen Vertigans
Study of Women's Mobility in the Public Buses in Delhi: Challenges in 'ethnography on wheels'.	Prakriti Arya and L.K.Das
Uneasy Coexistence: Religion and Patterns of Exclusion of Female Migrant Domestic Workers in Homes and Public Spaces	Anindita Chatterjee
Cultural transitions as strategies of adaptation among women domestic workers in Kolkata's local train travel	Mahashewta Bhattacharya
Viewing from an Indigenous Theoretical Lens: Upholding Stiwanism in the Study of Street and Domestic insecurity of Girl-Hawkers in the South-West, Nigeria	Temitope Yetunde Bello
Neoliberal Globalization and Informality: Towards the Gendering of Precarity in Sub-Saharan Africa	Edlyne Anugwom

K4 Implementing Gender Sensitive Research Methods

Session Organizers: Salma Mekkes and Lorena Dini

Paper's Title	Authors
Attentiveness to Gender in Post-Pandemic Research: The Potentials and Limits of Grounded Theory to Guide Gender-Sensitive Inquiry	Cornelia Bading and Claudia Bosch
Women's Health and Sustainability: Assessment of Exclusive Use of Menstrual Products in Urban India	Puja Das and Suresh Jungari
Trans-gendering the Urban: Lives of Gender Non-conforming People in India	Aniket Nandan and Swarupa Deb
Dynamics of Spatial Boundaries within the Transgender Community of Hijras in India	Leena Sharma

L2 Methodological Challenges, Overlaps, and Misunderstandings between Planning and the Social Sciences

Session Organizers: Ariane Sept and Jacques du Toit

Paper's Title	Authors
Transdisciplinarity to strengthen capacities in the formulation of development public policies and land management	Gisela Paredes Leguizamón and Claudia Patricia Uribe Galvis
Participatory Poverty Assessment: a Tool to Understand Urban Poor Livelihood Vulnerabilities	Anjali Pathak, Harshit S Lakra, and Smriti Mishra
A methodological framework for transdisciplinary urban planning	Jacques du Toit

L3 Historical and Contextual Uses of Planning and their Methods

Session Organizers: Lê Anh Đức, Nguyễn Thị Bích Ngọc and Ingmar Ehle

Paper's Title	Authors
Notes on the methodological conflict in creating an alternative perspective for smart cities: discussing the Carta Brasileira para Cidades Inteligentes	Dante Chiavareto Pezzin
Conceptual History in Urban Planning: a theoretical examination of the "Masterplan" in Porto Alegre, Brazil	Marina de Castro Teixeira Maia
Multi-dimensional conflicts in local planning in interregional spatial planning system– case of Viet Nam	Lê Anh Đức and Phạm Thanh Hiền

L5 Sustainability and Resilience of Cities

Session Organizers: Robert Cowley

Paper's Title	Authors
Sustainable Infrastructure Approach Based on Knowledge Co-Production to Improve Disaster Resilience on the North Coast of Central Java	Retno Dewi, Wiwandari Handayani and Iwan Rudiarto
A Methodological Approach towards the Assessment of Wastewater Governance in Urban Botswana	Lebogang Basimane
Measuring Sustainability of Urban Sanitation in India: Development of a Statistical Evaluation Metric	Debasree Bose and Arijita Dutta
Methods for Identifying Accessibility Issues of Indian Public Toilets	Divyang Purkayastha and Gaurav Raheja

L6 & A6 Teaching Spatial Methods and Urban Sustainability in Different Contexts & Decolonising the Canon for Methods Training

Session Organizers: Kenneth Malefane Maine, Estelle Kouokam, Idongesit Eshiet and Ariane Sept

Paper's Title	Authors
Teaching Spatial Methods and Urban Sustainability in Different Contexts (& Decolonising the Canon for Methods Training)	Kenneth Malefane Maine
Controversy Mapping – a teaching approach to better understand sustainability- and space-related conflicts	Ariane Sept,Gerald Beck, and Diego Compagna
Decolonizing Higher Education in the Global South: Issues, Challenges and Prospects	Idongesit Eshiet
Decolonizing Methodology of Historical Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan	Gulnara Mendikulova
Beyond Claude Ake's Deconstruction of Social Science Knowledge as Imperialism: Exploring Pathways to new African Development praxis	Bernard Nwosu

M2 Methods in Food Studies Research

Session Organizers: Fraya Frehse

Paper's Title	Authors
An approach to urban hunger during lean season	Rodrigue Samb
Mapping and Measuring Tribal Food Security Status of Jharkhand, India: A Block-Level Analysis.	Ambika Prasad Gupta and Harshit Sosan Lakra
Rural-Urban Transformation: Assessment of Typology, Physical Environment, and Socioeconomic in A Rural-Urban Landscape	Iwan Rudiarto,Siti Liza Fauziah, and Tia Dianing Insani

M3 Methods in Deviance Research

Session Organizers: Khumo Mothwari

Paper's Title	Authors
A SPATIAL-TEMPORAL ANALYSIS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CHARACTERISED BY FEMALE FATALITY: THE CASE OF POLICE JURISDICTIONAL EVIDENCE IN TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO	Godfrey St Bernard
Problem Gambling and the Question of Women Empowerment in the Inner Cities of SouthWest, Nigeria	Temitope Yetunde Bello

Urban Crime Mapping – An Assessment of Spatial Intensity of Urban Crime Spatial Configuration as a tool to Identify and Control Urban Crime	Madhivadhani Kalaiselvan

M4 Methods for Studying Religions and Religious/Sacred Spaces

Session Organizers: Gabriel Faimau and Silke Steets

Paper's Title	Authors
The Achimota Forest as a religious bricolage: exploring the transformation of urban recreational spaces into sacred spaces.	Solomon Kofi Amoah
Towards an Ethnography of Post-Capitalist Religious Tourism in the Global South	Aditya Mohanty
Religious Spatial Dynamics of Srirangam: Socio-Cultural and Socio-Economic Influences	Amanjeet Kaur and Vishaliny V
Traditional Priestess of Anyigba: Researching and Performing Gender, Sexuality, and Power in Sacred Spaces in Central Nigeria	Danladi Abah